ABOUT US

Founded in 1999, Trails of Indochina began as a boutique tour operator specialising in Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia. Over the years, we have expanded across the greater Asian region, including South Korea, Japan, and Bhutan. All driven by the same passion: connecting travellers with the rich cultures and people of these diverse lands.

As a locally owned company with regional offices throughout Asia, we bring first-hand knowledge and deep cultural insight. Our close relationships with communities, artisans, and experts allow us to curate experiences that are both authentic and enriching.

We warmly invite you to discover our beautiful corner of the world, uncover its hidden gems, and embark on a journey that is deeply personal and truly unforgettable.

Day 1: Luang Prabang Arrival (Own Tickets) – Arrival Airport Assistance – Transfer to Hotel

Upon arrival at the international terminal, look for the airport representative who will be holding a signboard with your name(s) on it. For a hassle-free experience, hand over your visa forms, visa fee, passport, 1 passport photo and luggage tag(s) to the airport representative who will then escort you to the immigration counter where your picture will be taken. Proceed directly to the arrival hall where your guide will be waiting to transfer you to your hotel. Your visa will be processed while you are on the way to your hotel and your passport and luggage will be delivered to you at your hotel within approximately half an hour of arrival.

NOTES:

- Please note that full passport details are required in advance for this service and you will need to sign the required visa forms (available on the plane and at the airport).
- This service does not include any required visa or associated visa fees.
- Luggage tags must be clearly written and names to be the same as what is on the booking for ease of delivery

If you are unable to find the representative, please call our local emergency numbers (+856) (0) 20 5455 0080 or (+856) (0) 20 5597 1123.

Then transfer to your hotel.

Upon arrival, process check-in and relax at your hotel.

The regular check-in time is at 15:00; early check-in is NOT included and subject to availability.

Meal: None
Accommodation: The Grand Luang Prabang Affiliated by Melia

Day 2: Early Morning Cultural Experience – Heritage Ride and Community Exchange

05:30 Meet your guide at the hotel lobby.

Guests may begin the day with one of Luang Prabang's most significant living cultural traditions.

The morning alms giving ceremony, locally known as Tak Bat, is an important daily Buddhist practice that has been observed by the local community for generations. Before sunrise, monks walk silently through the streets to receive alms.

Guests are welcome to observe this sacred ritual respectfully or participate if they wish. Your guide will provide cultural guidance to ensure the experience is conducted in a respectful and appropriate manner.

For guests who wish to make an offering, advance notice (minimum one day) is required so that the alms can be prepared in accordance with local traditions.

Guests may choose one of the following locations for the experience:
- Alms Giving in Luang Prabang Town
- Alms Offering in Ban Sakhong

07:00 Return to your hotel for breakfast.

NOTES:
- If you do not wish to make an offering, please keep an appropriate distance and observe the ritual in silence.
- Dress code: Shoulders, chest, and knees must be covered.

09:00 Meet your guide at the hotel lobby.

Join a scenic philanthropy biking tour through the charming streets of Luang Prabang, where peaceful roads and iconic landmarks await. After meeting your friendly guide and getting fitted for your bicycle, you'll pedal along the serene Mekong River, we stop by treasures like Wat Xieng Thong, famed for its stunning, intricate architecture and the National Museum, the former Royal Palace that beautifully captures Laos's rich history amidst lush, serene gardens.

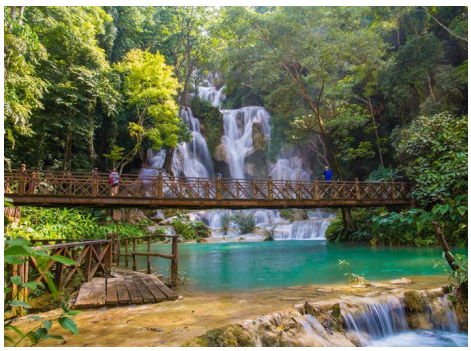

Experience local culture at a bustling market, where vibrant displays of fresh meats, fruits and aromatic spices offer a glimpse into the heart of traditional Lao cuisine. Then, experience something truly special with a visit to the Deaf & Mute Community Center. Here, deaf and mute children receive invaluable education and vocational training in weaving, dressmaking and mechanics, empowering them for a brighter future. During your visit, you'll explore their organic garden and training facilities, weaving area, garage - where you can engage with the students and learn more about their daily lives. You'll even have the chance to join a hands-on workshop making homemade jam, one of a key source of income for the community, before sharing a heart-warming meal prepared by the centre's staff themselves.

As the tour comes to an end, you'll cycle back to downtown, crossing the charming old French bridge over the Nam Khan River. Stop at the scenic confluence of the Mekong and Nam Khan rivers to capture unforgettable photos before returning to your hotel, filled with memories of a meaningful day.

NOTES:

- Approximate duration: 07 hours
- Cycling duration: 1.5-2 hours; cycling route: 14km; level: easy
- Inclusions: mountain bike with helmet, jam-making workshop, lunch, and entrance fees for downtown landmarks
- Age: suitable for guests aged 15 to 65
- A back-up vehicle is available for the cycling activity.
- Availability: National Museum (Royal Palace) closed last Thursday of every month.
- Not recommended for those with mobility issues
- The schedule of attractions and meals on the tour can be flexibly adjusted depending on the choice of morning or afternoon tour, as well as the guest's health condition and individual cycling preferences.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
Accommodation: The Grand Luang Prabang Affiliated by Melia

Day 3: Local Flavours & Buddhist Traditions – Kuang Si Waterfall

Breakfast at the hotel.

07:30 Meet your guide in the hotel lobby.

Your culinary journey begins at the bustling Phosy market, where you'll meet your local host, who previously introduced late renowned chef Anthony Bourdain to a home-cooked meal. She will guide you through the market, introduce you to the vendors selling fresh local ingredients used in traditional Lao cuisine. Once gathering your supplies, you'll be warmly welcomed into the host family's home, surrounded by lush farmland and organic garden. Here, you'll learn to prepare authentic dishes like Khao Niao, Keang Nor Mai, Mok Pa, Or Lam and Jeo Mak Kheua, all cooked in the authentic family style using a traditional fire stove.

Next, accompanied by the family, you'll carry the freshly prepared dishes to a nearby village temple. Upon arrival, a monk will greet and bless you in exchange for the food offerings. After the blessing, you'll be poured water as an offering and pray for loved ones. The monk will then tie a cotton string around your wrist, symbolizing protection and well-wishes for your life. Return to the family's home to enjoy the meal you've prepared. As you dine, you'll be invited to sip on homemade Lao whisky, crafted from sticky rice, and engage in warm conversations with your host family, learning more about Lao culture and village life.

NOTES:

- Approximate duration: 15-minute transfer/way (depending on your hotel's location), 4.5-5hour experience
- Monks do not have dinner; cooking section must be wrapped up by 10:30 and food must be delivered to temple by 11:00 at the latest.
- Inclusions: market tour, cooking class, temple food offering and blessing, meal
- Dietary requirements can be accommodated on request, menu flexibility for allergies.
- It is required to book 1 week in advance to be well-prepared for the experience.

In the afternoon, spend a half day exploring one of Luang Prabang's most picturesque sights, the cascading Kuang Si Waterfall with electric turquoise waters. Depart on a 1hr drive south of Luang Prabang, with stop at Ock Pop Tock Weaving Centre, a social enterprise working primarily in the field of textiles, handicrafts and design. Continue on to the waterfalls, and take a leisurely hike through the natural park past the Asian Bear Rescue Center. Swimming in the refreshing waters is possible, although between November and January the water temperature is very cool. Enjoy your lunch before returning to your hotel by private vehicle.

NOTES:

- Tour duration: 3.5 hours
- The Kuang Si Waterfalls can get crowded on weekends so it is advised to visit during the week, if possible.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
Accommodation: The Grand Luang Prabang Affiliated by Melia

Day 4: Embark on Heritage Line 'Anouvong'

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:00 Meet your guide at the hotel lobby and transfer to Callao Pier, located along the Mekong riverside in central Luang Prabang.

Pier location: Le Calao Pier Luang Prabang (in front of Le Calao Restaurant)
Address: Khem Khong Street, Luang Prabang, Laos
Boarding time: 08:30
Departure time: 09:00

In the morning, Heritage Line extends a warm welcome to guests at the mooring of the Heritage Line 'Anouvong' in the city centre of Luang Prabang. Our dedicated team assists with your check-in and attends to your luggage. Once ready, the captain of the 'Anouvong' sets the ship on its captivating 3-night journey along the Upper Mekong.

After spending some time to settle in, our cruise director will provide a welcome and safety briefing in the lounge as we set sail for our first destination, the renowned Pak Ou Caves.

Arriving at the Pak Ou Caves, nestled along the rocky shore of the Mekong, there are two grottoes sheltering approximately 4,000 sacred Buddhist statues and images. We delve into the lower cave, the most impressive and easily accessible. Post-cave visit, Heritage Line offers two optional choices to enhance your excursion: an adventurous kayak tour along the serene Nam Ou River or a visit of the nearby village of Ban Muang Keo, known for traditional silk weaving Lao whisky distillation. We also have the opportunity to visit a local alcohol workshop in this village (depending on time and availability).

As the afternoon progresses, we arrive at our overnight mooring and explore a picturesque village inhabited by Khmu people. Simplicity defines this locale, with bamboo huts elevated on stilts amidst vast rice fields. In this serene setting, we can mingle and meet with different generations – old and young – in the village, both deeply rooted in the land, sustaining their livelihood through manual agriculture. Peel back the layers of their daily existence, observe their way of life, and engage in insightful conversations to garner a profound understanding of their unique experiences. The highlight is the traditional Baci ceremony, a heartfelt Laotian ritual led by local elders, bestowing blessings upon your journey.

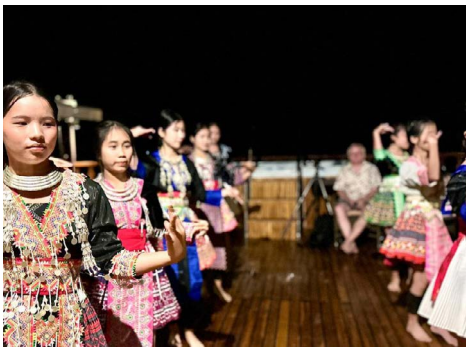

Ease into your first evening with a welcome cocktail and snacks as the sky transforms over the Mekong, followed by a preview of the next day's program. Welcome to a memorable exploration of Laotian culture along the Mekong.

Meals: Breakfast at the Hotel, Lunch & Dinner on Board
Accommodation: Heritage Line 'Anouvong' (private cabin, shared cruise)
(Promotion Code: YearEnd#TOI01)

Exclusive Benefit: 20% discount on first spa treatment per guest.

Cruise Note: All itineraries, programs, and optional tours are subject to change and will be operated as advertised on our website or through collaterals at the time of boarding.

Day 5: Khok Luang – Ban Baw - Khok Aek – Ban Thanoun

For early risers, our daily yoga class on the terrace deck, framed by the stunning Mekong backdrop, offers a refreshing start to the day. As the ship progresses towards the morning's destination, join our guide for an insightful lecture on the history of Lao royalty, with a focus on King Anouvong —the namesake of our vessel.

Our morning sojourn leads us to two traditional adjacent villages, where Lao Loum and Khmu communities have lived side by side for generations, each preserving their own traditions in quiet harmony. Most villagers are farmers, cultivating seasonal crops and tending small gardens, while in Ban Baw, a handful of women keep alive the intricate art of cotton and silk weaving. During our visit, you can witness a demonstration of this enduring craft, observing weavers as they work on traditional hand-looms using labour-intensive methods that have remained unchanged through the ages. The village also has a small temple tending to the community's spiritual life, where those who wish can join the resident monks for a short private meditation session.

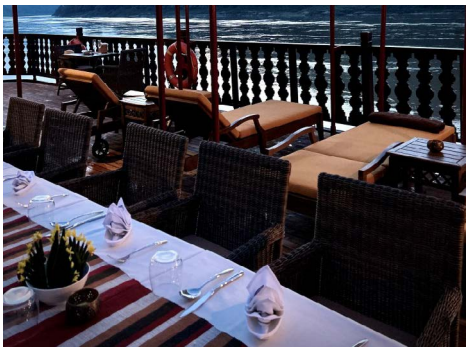

Sailing into mid-afternoon, our expert guide presents an engaging lecture on the intricate tapestry of Laos' diverse ethnic groups along the Mekong River. Another breath-taking riverine spectacle awaits as we arrive at another remarkable village. Here, three distinct ethnic groups: Hmong, Lao Loum, and Khamu, coexist almost literally under one roof. Each group possesses its own unique history, traditions, ways of life, family dynamics, and housing styles. Venture into the village to a family home where representatives from each ethnic group will showcase and explain their differences and characteristics in day-to-day life.

Back on board, as the afternoon transitions into evening, gather in the lounge for light snacks and a preview of the upcoming day's program. The evening unfolds with a traditional dance performance on the terrace deck, setting the tone for a memorable barbecue dinner on a splendid sandbank amid astonishing natural beauty.

After dinner, feel free to join us in the lounge for a cosy cinematic setting featuring "Chiang" (Laotian for "elephant"). This cinematic gem, shot in this very region in 1927 and produced by the same visionary behind the first King Kong movie, promises to set the mood for our next day's adventure.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
Accommodation: Heritage Line 'Anouvong' (private cabin, shared cruise)
(Promo Code: YearEnd#TOI01)

Day 6: Ban Thanoun – Pakbeng – Khok Mwe

Wake up with the sun for the option of an invigorating yoga class in communion with the Mekong.

Our first stop of the day brings us to Pak Beng. Along the riverside opposite the town and nestled in the jungle lies Laos' most sustainable elephant sanctuary. Here, in an almost pristine natural setting, we have the privilege of encountering these majestic creatures. Born in Laos and once employed as logging elephants, they now find sanctuary in a peaceful and natural environment, their ability to survive in the wild having been curtailed in captivity. The sanctuary, a symbol of eco-tourism and sustainability, reflects a deep commitment to these principles. Witnessing these gentle giants in the rainforest and learning about their unique stories makes for an unforgettable experience. Following lunch, engage in a cooking class where you'll learn a Lao-Thai dish simple enough to recreate at home later. Food brings back memories, doesn't it?

As the afternoon unfolds, our journey continues, culminating in our final overnight mooring spot. Once again, we anchor at a splendid sandbank, creating a picturesque setting for a relaxed aperitif, ideally accompanied by a stunning sunset. Subsequently, a farewell dinner is served on the terrace deck, marking the conclusion of this remarkable journey.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
Accommodation: Heritage Line 'Anouvong' (private cabin, shared cruise)
(Promo Code: YearEnd#TOI01)

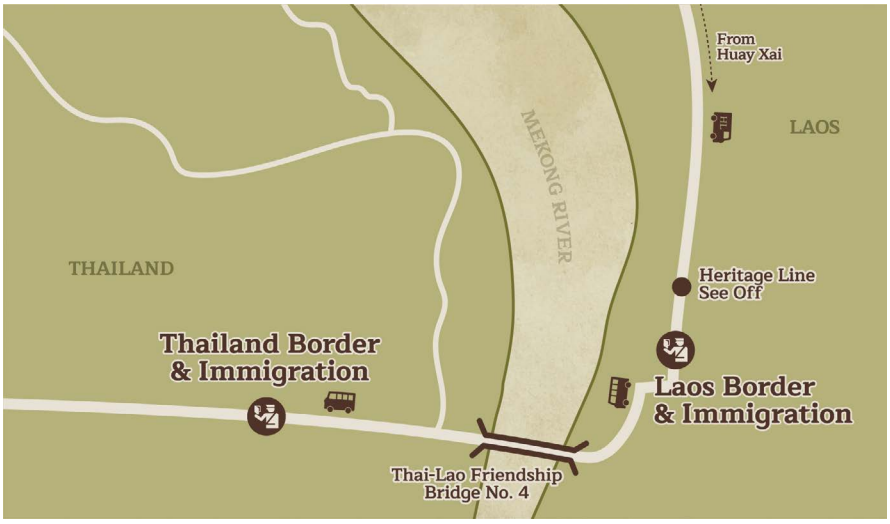

Day 7: Khok Mwe – Huay Xai / Disembarkation – Thai Immigration Clearance (on your own) – Transfer to Hotel (approx. 1.5 hours)

After an exhilarating 3-night cruise, today invites a more leisurely pace, allowing you to savour the memories created during our journey. With a substantial distance to cover before reaching Huay Xai, our final destination, the day unfolds with a blend of relaxation and exploration.

Feel free to extend your morning snooze if desired. Breakfast is intentionally simplified, with fewer choices or à la carte, as we prepare for a diverse culinary brunch later- a prelude to bidding farewell. As we sail into the heart of the Golden Triangle, the morning is yours to relax or engage in our captivating presentation unravelling the intricate history of the Golden Triangle, exploring its complexities of colonialism, opium, conflicts, and the roles played by Burma, Thailand, Laos, Britain, China. The Golden Triangle, where Myanmar, Thailand, and Laos meet, extends far into each country. The name "Golden Triangle" was originally invented by the CIA referring to this area.

We are passing the confluence of the Mekong and Nam Tha River, a major tributary known as the "Green River". From the terrace deck, take in our captain's skilful navigation as the vessel weaves through rocks, rapids, and sandbanks. Our final excursion takes us to Huay Phaluang village, home to the Khmu people, whose presence spans across China, Laos, Thailand, Myanmar, and Vietnam. Here, the history and culture shared during our onboard lecture come alive before your eyes. Back onboard, relax and relish the concluding tranquil hours of our voyage, with lunch served until approximately an hour before arrival.

As we dock at Huay Xai pier in the afternoon, we facilitate a seamless transfer to the Lao-Thai border, bidding you farewell in front of the Lao immigration office. We extend our best wishes for a pleasant onward journey.

Upon arrival, proceed with check-in and time at leisure.
